Daily drop-off is from 8:30am to 9:00am each day at the Ford Center. To ensure each students' safety, an adult must walk the student into the building and sign the student in each morning.

We strongly encourage students to arrive early so they will not miss out on any scheduled activities. We have a saying in the theatre: "Early is on time; on time is late." Please help ourstudents abide by this rule.

On arrival the first day, YMTW staff will check in students, verify the receipt of all required documents, give each student their name tag and music folder, and direct parents and students to the Main Hall.

ITEMS NEEDED EVERYDAY

Notebook provided by the YMTW, snack (no peanuts), and a refillable water bottle labeled with the student's name. The student is responsible for bringing their notebook to every rehearsal and keeping track of its location at home

CLOTHING

Your child should wear comfortable, athletic, closed-toe shoes (no Crocs, sandals, or flip flops) and casual outfits that are appropriate for play. Girls should avoid wearing dresses or skirts as many of our activities require them to sit on the floor. Costumes will include the workshop t-shirt (provided) and additional articles depending on the show. You will need to supply your own footwear. Specifics will be discussed later.

ABSENCES

If your child is ill and must miss a day, please let the Director know as soon as possible. After roles are assigned, missing rehearsal affects the entire ensemble. Please avoid scheduling dentist or doctor appointments during the three-hour workshop. You may reach the Director, Julia Aubrey at (662) 816-4969 to discuss absences.

PROGRAM RULES

Students will be expected to follow all rules set by the workshop. As rules and expectations will change based on the activity that the students are engaging in, students will be given clear instructions and expectations before and during each activity.

1. Stay in the auditorium. We have a guard on duty every day to provide security.
2. Learn your music and lines as the numbers are assigned. The final show is memorized. You will also need to rehearse choreography/movements at home each evening.
3. Show your parents/guardians all notes sent by the Director.
4. No visitors, please. Parents/Guardians are welcome at any time to observe the workshop with advance notice, but we request that no other children or relatives enter the auditorium.
5. Turn off cellphones when you arrive and keep them in a backpack or purse and store in trays.
6. You will be escorted to the restrooms located in the gallery of the Ford Center by a staff member. Wash your hands with soap and water for at least 20 seconds and use the hand sanitizer located throughout the facility.
7. Cover coughs and sneezes with the inside of your elbow.
8. Collaborate and cooperate. The ensemble's success depends on each of you taking responsibility for your part and working together to make the show the best it can be.
9. Ask questions. We want to make sure you understand what is happening in the development of the show.
10. All students must maintain behavior that does not hinder the experience and safety of themselves or other students. Bullying or hitting will not be tolerated. If a student does not follow the instructions of the Director after a first warning, the parents/guardians will be advised of this behavior and have the opportunity to correct the situation. If the behavior continues, the student will be dismissed from the workshop. In this instance, the fee is non-refundable.

Have fun! This is why we do theatre!
